

Announcing LEGIS League Dressage

The LEGIS League is bringing its popular awards program to dressage riders. In 2018, there will be five shows hosting LEGIS League Dressage qualifying classes, culminating with the LEGIS League Dressage Finals.

The LEGIS League is about fun, recognition, and awards!

Starr Vaughn is hosting five shows this year that feature LEGIS League Dressage qualifying classes and then the finals. Here is a list of the shows serving to qualify for LEGIS League Dressage Finals:

- May 11-13 Spring Dressage I
- May 18-19 Spring Dressage II
- July 13-15 Summer Dressage I
- August 17-18 Summer Dressage II
- August 24-26 Summer Dressage Finale-LEGIS League Finals-last chance to qualify is 8/24

LEGIS League Dressage Finals categories:

- | | |
|--|--|
| • Training Level and First Level | Junior/Young Rider, Adult, & Open Riders |
| • Second and Third Levels | Junior/Young Rider, Adult, & Open Riders |
| • Fourth Level and Prix St. George | Junior/Young Rider, Adult, & Open Riders |
| • FEI Intermediate I & II and Grand Prix | Junior/Young Rider, Adult, & Open Riders |

Points are awarded from first through fifth (5-4-3-2-1) in any class a member rides in that corresponds to one of the award categories above. That's right, ride in your usual classes and earn points toward the LEGIS League Dressage Finals.

Earn a minimum of three points to be eligible to ride in the LEGIS League Dressage Finals.

Join the LEGIS League to have your points tracked and to qualify for the LEGIS League Dressage Finals. Membership is only $30. Earn points on a horse/ rider combination, and any horse you ride is automatically tracked for no extra fee. Join prior to or at the July show, and any points you may have earned at Starr Vaughn May shows will count.

For more information visit the LEGIS League website (LEGISleague.com) or see Laurie in the horse show office at the next Starr Vaughn show.
